THE SIDE VIEW PRESS

Dear reader,

Welcome to the first edition of The Side View Journal.

This journal is a companion resource to The Side View website, where you can find the essays featured here and more in stand-alone formats.

The purpose of this quarterly journal is to gather and offer in one place the articles published on the website.

This issue of the journal also includes an introductory essay that outlines the perspective informing The Side View and explores in some depth the philosophy and vision of the project. The essay also provides an overview of what you will find in this issue.

If you are already familiar with The Side View, you know it is currently self-funded. We are looking to promote the understanding that attention is an art form and perception is a skill, and to do that as widely as we can.

We invite your help. Should this work strike your interest, there are several ways you can help The Side View grow, including sharing our essays, podcasts, and journal publications, or making a monetary donation.

If you have ideas, feedback, or general comments about The Side View, you can reach me directly at adam@thesideview.co. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Adam Robbert
